2019 Labor Surplus Areas

Labor surplus areas (LSAs) are civil jurisdictions with higher-than-average unemployment rates for a two-year reference period. The U.S. Department of Labor issues the LSA list each fiscal year. This list is effective October 1 through the following September 30. The reference period used in preparing the current list was January 2017 through December 2018. The national average (including Puerto Rico) unemployment rate during this period was rounded to 4.34 percent. To qualify, labor surplus areas must have a qualifying rate of at least 20 percent higher than the national unemployment rate is rounded to 5.21 percent. Since 5.21 percent is below the "floor unemployment rate" of 6.00 percent, a civil jurisdiction must have a two-year unemployment rate of 6.00 percent in order to be classified as an LSA.

Employers in these LSAs may be given preference in bidding on federal procurement contracts. The purpose in providing such preference is to help direct government dollars into areas where people are in the most severe economic need.

What are Exceptional Circumstances?

There is an "Exceptional Circumstance" provision that allows a city, civil jurisdiction, or balance of county to petition for inclusion in the LSA list after it is released. The areas that are eligible are Combined Statistical Areas, Metropolitan Statistical Areas, and Civil Jurisdictions. Events like natural disasters and adverse economic changes, like a major plant closing, might be reasons for inclusion.

In order to be approved as an exceptional circumstance, the state workforce agency must submit a petition requesting such classification to the U.S. Department of Labor's ETA. To qualify, an area must have a qualifying unemployment rate for an LSA in the most recent three months and be projected to maintain that rate for the next 12 months.

What Are Civil Jurisdictions?

A civil jurisdiction is defined as:

- A. A city (or town/township in Michigan, New Jersey, New York or Pennsylvania) with a population of at least 25,000 and which possess powers and functions similar to those of cities. The population is based on the most recently available estimates from the Bureau of the Census.
- B. A county, except for counties which contain any type of civil jurisdictions defined in criteria A, or a county in the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island.
- C. A "balance of county" which consists of a county less any component cities and townships identified in criteria A.

Under the program's exceptional circumstance procedures, LSA classifications can be made for civil jurisdictions, Metropolitan Statistical Areas or Combined Statistical Areas, as defined by the Office of Management and Budget, of Labor's ETA. The following is a list of Tennessee Counties and Civil Jurisdictions that qualify as labor surplus areas and civil jurisdictions:

Labor Surplus Areas	Civil Jurisdictions
Rhea County	Rhea County

The LSA list is produced as an Excel file with an ability to modify (or shorten) that list. In order to use this application, the LSA Excel file must be downloaded and saved to your computer. The following link gives instructions on how to use this feature in an Excel file: <https://support.office.com/en-us/article/Filter-data-in-a-range-or-table-01832226-31b5-4568-8806-38c37dcc180e>.

State Workforce Agencies may submit petitions in electronic format to wright.samuel.e@dol.gov, or in hard copy to the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Office of Workforce Investment, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Room C-4514, Washington, DC 20210, Attention Samuel Wright. Data collection for the petition is approved under OMB 1205-0207, expiration date July 31, 2020.

Nonfarm Employment & Labor Workforce Narrative

Total nonfarm employment increased by 57,200 jobs from January 2019 to January 2020. There were increases in trade/transportation/utilities (up 17,000 jobs), which includes increases of 11,400 jobs in transportation & warehousing; leisure & hospitality (up 14,700 jobs), which includes increases of 10,200 jobs in accommodation & food services; educational & health services (up 8,400 jobs), which includes increases of 7,400 jobs in health care & social assistance; professional & business services (up 7,400 jobs), which includes 6,400 jobs in professional/scientific/technical services; financial activities (up 3,300 jobs).

These increases were partially offset by a decrease in transportation equipment manufacturing (down 2,100 jobs) and administrative/support/waste management (down 1,000 jobs).

During the past month, nonfarm employment decreased by 58,400 jobs. There were decreases in trade/transportation/utilities (down 16,300 jobs); professional & business services (down 12,500 jobs), which includes decreases of 10,200 jobs in administrative/support/waste management; government (down 9,400 jobs), which includes decreases of 5,600 jobs in state government educational services; leisure & hospitality services (down 7,700 jobs), which includes decreases of 6,000 jobs in accommodation & food services.

These decreases were partially offset by increases in electrical equipment & appliance manufacturing (up 200 jobs) and machinery manufacturing (up 100 jobs).

Tennessee's seasonally adjusted estimated unemployment rate for January 2020 was 3.3 percent, unchanged from the revised December 2019 rate. The United States unemployment rate for January 2020 was 3.6 percent, up slightly from the revised December 2019 rate of 3.5 percent. In January 2019, the U.S. seasonally adjusted rate was 4.0 percent while the state rate was 3.4 percent.

The not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate increased in 94 counties, and remained the same in 1 county. Williamson County had the lowest rate at 2.5 percent, up from 2.1 percent in December. The highest rate was Lincoln County at 7.5 percent, up from 6.1 percent in December.

The data from all the nonfarm employment estimates tables include all full- and part-time nonfarm wage and salary employees who worked during or received pay for any part of the pay period that includes the 12th of the month. This is a count of jobs by place of work. Agricultural workers, proprietors, self-employed persons, workers in private households, and unpaid family workers are excluded. These numbers may not add due to rounding. Data are based on the 2018 benchmark.
